

Wild & Tame Creative Writing Workshops: Info Package

About Creative Writing Workshops:

I am excited to bring people together for Wild & Tame Creative Writing Workshops, including offerings for adults, private groups, or one-on-one mentoring. All workshops are offered online or in-person. Please contact me if you are interested in youth classes.

This is not a grammar lesson: this is a writing workshop. Think of it like a pottery class: you'll learn something new, have fun experimenting, and bring something home to show your family and friends. You don't need any prior experience or any idea of where to start. That's the point of the workshop! If you are joining me in person, there will be snacks, drinks, and a safe, cozy place to share, with room for social distancing. A notebook and pen will also be provided.

If you are joining me virtually, you are able to remain in your own cozy space. Supplies will not be provided.

If you have a group that wants to write on a specific topic, let me know! I can facilitate a personalized workshop.

Examples of learning topics:

- Poetry
- Songwriting
- Journaling as a Therapy
- Breaking Writer's Block
- Short Stories
- Self-Reflection

About Me:

My name is Carrie Robinson. I am 31 years old and I have a cat named Philip. I love plants, writing, and the great outdoors! I have been a writer for as long as I can remember.

I have a Communications Diploma in Professional Writing from MacEwan University. I have been a freelance writer and editor ever since, and I have recently started offering website design and these workshops. I write many different forms including songs, poetry, journaling, articles, blog content, website copy, and much more. I have been an in-house content creator for a travel company and university, however I much prefer the freelance route and it gives me great joy to be able to offer you my best!

I love living in Calgary because I can sing at open mic nights, go to the mountains to go camping, and I get to teach people like you! I am passionate about music and writing and I'm so excited to share that with my students.

If you are enrolling, I am a fun, easy-going, and relaxed person. I am open to your writing interests and I simply love teaching writing to people. There's no better time to try something new than right now!

If you are enrolling your child, I have a lot of experience with children, from babysitting, to being an au pair, to helping out with my nephews whenever I get the chance. I love their spirit and creativity, and I can't wait to start this journey with them.

About My Space:

My space is located in Marda Loop, Calgary, AB. There is free street parking all around my building, and a couple bus stops within a couple blocks. Full address will be given upon registration.

I live in a condo with a walk up, and my studio is in my spacious living area. I do have a cat, so if cat allergies are an issue, please let me know. He is very friendly and kid safe.
